

Seafarers' House Privacy Statement

Seafarers' House (SFH) is committed to protecting your privacy. We will do everything in our power to ensure your right to privacy. We recognize that visitors to our site may be concerned about the information they provide to us, and how we treat that information. This Privacy Statement addresses those concerns. SFH policies and procedures for handling donors' personal information have been created with the understanding that Internet technologies are still evolving and as a result, its policies and procedures are subject to change. Please read on for more details about our privacy statement.

INFORMATION COLLECTION

SFH acquires, stores and transmits donor communications and information that may be regarded as private or sensitive. This information - such as the donor's name, address, telephone number, and credit card data - is provided to SFH by its supporters. SFH will protect the confidentiality of its donors' information, account information and personal communications to the fullest extent possible and consistent with the law and the legitimate interests of SFH, its partners, and its employees. To protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of information that is collected from customers, SFH has appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures in place.

EMAIL ADDRESSES

This website collects your email address for the sole purpose of sending donation and/or registration confirmations and communicating with you about future events. SFH will not disclose, sell, trade, rent, or otherwise reveal your email address to any entity.

SECURITY

In addition to utilizing third-party SSL encryption for all donor/registrant information, the Card Security Code is only used for credit card processing and is not stored on SFH's servers.
